THE QUEEN IN PILIKIA

TURNED AWAY FROM SWELL
NEW YORK HOTELS.

"Because Her Color Was Dark"—Gives Gotham the Shake and Goes on to Washington—Her Experience.

NEW YORK, December 1.—Former Queen Liliuokalani, with an imperial retinue and seventeen pieces of imperial baggage, left New York today for Washington. Her departure was somewhat unexpected as it had been given out that she was to remain in the city for several days. Her Majesty was much disappointed, however, at the way New York had treated her. She was willing to forgive the fact that several hotels were too full to accommodate her, for she appreciated that they did not realize that royalty was knocking at the door. But nobody came to pay her homage, not even Mayor Van Wyck or Squire Croker or daughters of the crown. The feelings of her Majesty were hurt by this neglect, and late on Saturday night she called her royal secretary, Joseph Aea, into her royal presence and had a talk with him.

"Joseph," said the ex-Queen "the people of this city don't seem to appreciate the fact that royalty is here to be entertained. What are we going to do about it?"

"I don't know, ma'am—I mean your Majesty," said Aea. "I guess they haven't the right idea about queens in this town. Suppose we go to Washington?"

The lady agreed and the party left the Hotel Roland at 8 o'clock this morning and was driven to the station.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani of the Hawaiian Islands, accompanied by Miss Myra Heleluhe, John D. Almoku and Joseph K. Aea, arrived in Washington tonight from New York. The former Queen and members of her suite would not meet callers.

NEW YORK, November 30.—Queen Liliuokalani arrived here incog. Friday, and was turned away from the Waldorf-Astoria, Savoy, Netherlands and Plaza, because the clerks took her and her four companions for part of a company of Black Patti troubadours, and sealed up the registers. Queen Liliuokalani was finally recognized by a subject, who is now a bell boy at the Plaza Hotel. He heard the clerk direct the party to the Hotel Roland, and lost no time making his way there and announcing that the Queen was coming.

AUSTRALIAN STEAMERS.

A Line of Freighters May Run to San Francisco.

NEW YORK, December 2.—Among the arrivals on the Cunarder Umbria from Liverpool today was Robert Shand, general manager of the Western Australian Steamship Company.
Shand is here on business connected with the line, and it is not improbable that as a result of his visit his company may be running by next September a fleet of freight steamers between San Francisco and Western Australia.

In speaking of the matter, he said:
"I am here to look over the shipping field, and get an idea as to the prospects it holds out for a new line. If it is started, the route will be from San Francisco to Western Australian ports.
Our branch office will be in San Francisco. We are confident that the shipping field here offers excellent inducements. Trade between America and Australia has grown enormously during the past four years, and not a little difficulty is experienced in getting suitable and fast freight steamers to handle it."

CONSUMPTIVES EXCLUDED.

NEW YORK, November 29.—United States Judge Thomas, sitting in the Circuit Court in Brooklyn, today decided in favor of the ruling of the Treasury Department at Washington in the case of Thomas Boden of Philadelphia. The decision prohibits Boden, a supposed consumptive, from remaining in the country.

Judge Thomas decides that, as a simple question of fact was before him in the premises, he could not officially do otherwise than sustain the Treasury Department. No question of law, he observes, had been propounded in the writ of habeas corpus sworn out by Boden's lawyer. The case has to do with the right of consumptives to land here as immigrants.

F. T. Tobin of Philadelphia, Boden's lawyer, obtained a stay from Judge Thomas late this afternoon, pending an appeal which will be taken to the United States Circuit Court.

SERENADED THE ADMIRAL.

The Territorial Band under Captain Berger played for the special celebration of Admiral Casey at the Hawaiian Hotel early yesterday morning. Captain Relter and the Admiral's staff were present and listened to the numbers played in their honor with pleased interest.

Which she undoubtedly did, for though the first of her sex, she was a woman; be sure that she selected those whose beauties were enhanced by the possession of perfume.

Perhaps Adam noticed it, perhaps not.
The modern Adam does. A subtle odor of some rare perfume is recognized as an attribute of every perfect toilet now-
